

Santa Clara County Supervisor Liz Kniss represents Santa Clara County's Fifth District, which includes Saratoga, Cupertino, Mountain View, Sunnyvale, Los Altos and the Los Altos Hills, Palo Alto, and Stanford. Prior to her service at the County level, Liz served as both a City Councilmember and as Mayor of the city of Palo Alto.

In her capacity on the Board of Supervisors, she is Chair of the Health and Hospital and Legislative Committees, and is Vice Chair of the Housing, Land Use, Environment and Transportation Committee. She serves on the boards of the Santa Clara Family Health Plan, Joint Venture Silicon Valley, the California State Association of Counties, the Valley Transportation Agency, and the Caltrain Board.

Liz is an advocate for health across the State – and the nation.

She is active at the California State Association of Counties as a member of their Board, Executive Board, and Chair of their Health and Human Services Committee, she also Chairs the Urban Counties Caucus, a collaboration of the largest counties in California. At the National Level, Liz is also active as a member of the National Association of Counties where she is Chair of their Health Policy Steering Committee and sits on the Large Urban Counties Caucus representing the largest counties in the nation.